

InDrive calls on people to ride for fair price

Chennai, May 19: inDrive, an international ride-hailing platform, is disrupting the ride-sharing industry in Chennai by allowing passengers and drivers to negotiate fairer fares among themselves. inDrive also announces the launch of "Driver of the Month" in Chennai.

Cab Drivers who provide the most rides with inDrive during the campaign will be awarded attractive prizes. There will be 1 mega prize (a motorcycle) and 10 prizes for runners-up (smartphones).

Sergei Kondrutski, Regional Driver Acquisition Team Leader South Asia, inDrive, said Creating fairer solutions to address the existing gaps in underserved markets is a crucial part of inDrive's global expansion strategy.

We offer Ride-Hailing services in different types of vehicles across India, but here in Chennai inDrive operates only cab and auto-rickshaw categories, offering both drivers & passengers more fairly priced ride-hailing choices.

Today, inDrive is the second most downloaded mobility app in the world, and serves more than 175 million users worldwide in over 614 cities across 47 countries on five continents.

Pavit Nanda, South Asia PR Manager, inDrive, said "We already have thousands of registered drivers in Chennai. All our driver partners are highly experienced and have completed the full document-verification process.

Today, we have also awarded our most active drivers and passengers in Chennai, thanking them for being a part of our growing journey."
